Wolseley Canada announces Mark Evans as new Western Canada Sales Director

Vancouver, BC – Wolseley Canada is thrilled to announce the appointment of Mark Evans, as the Director of Sales, Plumbing & HVAC in Western Canada.

In this newly created leadership role, Mark will focus on growing sales in the Western region, and work closely with the regional sales managers to understand customer needs, market dynamics and nuances.

“Mark is a great addition to the leadership team,” says Chris Choquette, VP, Western Canada. “He brings exceptional industry knowledge, experience, and relationships, to this important role. I’m looking forward to working with Mark and supporting his goals for sales growth and development at Wolseley Canada.”

In his most recent role as Senior Director of Corporate Development at Viega, Mark developed business models to drive growth, influence strategic relationships and built deep market understanding of new channels and segments across the sales organization.

“I’m excited to join the team at Wolseley and grow the business in Western Canada – an important part of the overall company strategy,” says Evans.

He begins his new role at Wolseley on October 10.
